

Get classic carrying plus protection and organization, with the updated Ranger Bag. Shock-absorbing interior foam plus rigid side walls protect Chromebooks and laptops against bumps and drops. The included non-slip shoulder strap offers cross-body carry options, while the double handles attach with Velcro for a comfortable grip. Get organized on-the-go with the durable front zippered pocket and interior compartments. Rubberized bottom treads keep it standing tall and protect contents against wet surfaces. Durable stitching throughout plus no-fail YKK zippers make for long-lasting use.
